The Honorable Charles Schumer

S-309, The Capitol

Dear Majority Leader Thune and Minority Leader Schumer:

The undersigned groups, representing the full range of American agriculture, strongly oppose any amendment to the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA) that would weaken the producer safety net, including an amendment we anticipate will be offered by Senator Grassley.

The Grassley amendment eliminates all the positive improvements made in the OBBBA regarding payment limits and the expansion of access to disaster assistance and conservation programs for producers with 75 percent or more of their average gross income derived from farming, ranching, or forestry. In addition, the amendment imposes new restrictions on producers by mandating one payment limit per farming operation and substantially changing the definition of what it means for a producer to be actively engaged in farming.

Collectively, these changes to the OBBBA made by the Grassley amendment will impose massive additional penalties on farmers across the country even as they struggle to efficiently manage their operations while contending with a host of challenges ranging from high input costs to volatile market prices and erratic weather. Since passage of the 2018 farm bill, grower production costs alone have increased by 25 to 30 percent.

The OBBBA as currently drafted provides the enhancements necessary for growers to better weather the current economic environment. A strong farmer safety net is designed to provide a lifeline – not a handout – when conditions are otherwise unsustainable. Without this assurance, many producers will be unable to make the necessary investments to keep their operations viable, and some will abandon farming altogether.

We cannot allow either outcome. For these and other reasons, we again express our strong opposition to any amendment attacking the producer safety net, including the amendment being offered by Senator Grassley, and respectfully ask you to urge your colleagues to vote no on any such amendment that may come before the Senate.

Sincerely,
